ABOUT DHARAMSHALA STADIUM

The Himachal Pradesh Cricket Association Stadium, known as the Dharamshala Stadium, is a picturesque cricket ground in Dharamshala, Himachal Pradesh, recognized for its stunning Himalayan backdrop and high altitude of 1,457 meters. Inaugurated in 2003 and achieving international status in 2013, the stadium is home to the Punjab Kings IPL team and is known for its fast, bouncy pitch and large capacity of 23,000 spectators.

ABOUT DHARAMSHALA MONASTERY

Dharamshala is a major Tibetan spiritual center known for its numerous monasteries, most notably Namgyal Monastery, the personal monastery of His Holiness the 14th Dalai Lama. Other significant monasteries include Gyuto Monastery, a Tantric University famous for its teachings on Vajrayana Buddhism and philosophical debate. These monasteries are centers of Buddhist studies, ritual practices, and cultural preservation, offering visitors a glimpse into Tibetan life and Buddhist philosophy.
